

Welcome to ...

... and the amazing powers vibrational frequencies have on our energy and healing capabilities! Holographic energy discs are programmed with specific frequencies that, when applied to certain acupressure points on the body, help to modulate or adjust the body's energy to support greater health & well-being. Holograms transmit beneficial energy formulas to meridians that help restore or influence cellular structure which, in turn, also influences the functioning of the entire human body.

EMRO Quantum has harnessed this energy using state-of-the-art holographic discs, making it possible to support optimal energy vibrations within the body leading to greater health & well-being. Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) has understood the power and importance of human energy ("Chi") for centuries, and have practiced techniques designed to manipulate the body's energy using applied pressure (Acupressure), needles (Acupuncture), and movement (Qi Gong, Tai Chi, etc.) for over 5,000 years. EMRO Quantum is the international company that imprints vibrational frequencies on a quarter-sized disc enabling people to directly
